WHAT CAN I DO AS A LEE COUNTY RED CROSS VOLUNTEER?

Lee County is loaded with talented people. We need you to help in any way you would like. As a volunteer you can work as many or as few hours as you would like. You can work in a area of your personal expertise or you can try something new. Our local Lee County Red Cross has a variety of training programs to help you.

We would like each new volunteer take our Fulfilling Our Missions class that will introduce you to all the different areas to help you make a decision. The Instructor will be there to interview you and discuss the options that may interest you.

After that, you may pick and choose as many training courses you would like to take as your personal time allows.

Below is a list of Groups and Activities that will give you a broad overview of the areas that the Lee County Red Cross needs your help.
